JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

As discussed on the record during today's teleconference:

1. In response to Defendants' letter filed earlier today, ECF No. 58, Plaintiff shall file a letter on or before December 2, 2020, not to exceed six single-spaced pages, explaining its position. No reply to Plaintiff's letter will be permitted absent leave of Court.
2. On or before December 2, 2020, the parties shall file a joint proposed order (or, in the absence of agreement, competing proposals along with a redline showing the differences between them) memorializing a minimum production plan to which the parties agree, with the understanding that Plaintiff — in its separate filing on the same day — will seek a more accelerated schedule. The proposed order should include, inter alia: the processing rate per agency; the date each agency will commence production, if any; what types of documents each agency will prioritize in its production, if appropriate; a process and schedule to keep the Court apprised of the status of production; and a procedure to adjudicate disputes that might arise in the production process. The parties shall email to Chambers a Microsoft Word version of the proposed order(s).

SO ORDERED.
